For European Union (EU) groups of state or comprehensive schools

In all state museums free entrance for European Union (EU) school groups subject to free and compulsory booking, calling Firenze Musei (+39 055 294883 - Mon-Fri 8:30am-6:30pm, Sat 8:30am-12:30pm), subject to availability. Online booking is not available

The list of students and teachers on the school letterhead must be shown at the ticket office.

Educational assistance can be asked for at the time of booking (at the cost of € 3 per student) writing to: didattica@operalaboratori.it

Groups - starting from secondary school - that visit Gli Uffizi, the Palazzo Pitti complex (Boboli Garden excluded) and the Accademia and are led by a guide or by a teacher acting as tour guide, must be equipped with headsets. It is possible to rent them at the price of € 1,50 directly inside the museum at the Firenze Musei desk or rent them privately.

Travel agencies CANNOT book for school groups.

If the school does not book, the group will have to join the general queue. In this case:

- Free entrance for persons up to 18 years of age (ID proof required);
- EU citizens between 18 and 25 years of age (ID proof required) pay € 2* for each State Museum;
- full-price admission for teachers of foreign schools.

For non-European Union school groups

For non-EU school groups free entrance for persons up to 18 years of age (ID proof required) and full-price admission for people over 18 years of age (teachers included).

In this case tickets can be booked, calling Firenze Musei (+39 055 294883 - Mon-Fri 8:30am-6:30pm, Sat 8:30am-12:30pm), and paying, on top of the admission ticket (if necessary), the booking fee (€ 4 for Gli Uffizi and for Accademia, € 3 for all the other museums) for each person.

If the school does not book the group will have to join the general queue.

For everyone

Booking for Gli Uffizi and Accademia is recommended, from March to October and during Christmas holidays, to avoid long queues due to the high tourist season.

Discounted tickets for groups are not available.
